- contest opened for logos for dumont union and dpg publishing letterhead
- see job list for the jobs

2) new air cond - some people want it to cool camera area and some others want it in the production area

- technical discussion follows with multiple variations but committee will follow up
- decision to put it in the camera room

3) Sink - both sinks are leaking, wash sink badly in the developing sink not so badly - steve suggests new wash tank idea that will eliminate filling the wash sink which is causing a lot of the problem

- steve will check out sink prices, how much his wash tank idea will cost, new tap price insert thermometer tap fixture price ($15-$200) to aid temperature mixing
- steve also wants to replace present copy board with foam rubber and other accompanying accoutrements so that big books will not put a lot of pressure on only one small area of the glass when they are photographed
- he also wants a new expanded docket box for camera room for things that are to be negativized

4) Editing and Editorializing

-rosco wants discussion over hassles that cropped up in the past while

- 1) correct everything
 - 2) correct nothing
 - 3) correct what you catch in perforating
 - 4) correct what we agree with politically, morally, ethically, racially etc
- the above are 4 options on how we are to deal with correcting mistakes that occur in the copy we are sent from our customers

-where has murray gone?

-rosco wants every mistake at every stage corrected

-jane says if you don't catch it in perforating, forget it

-says the ~~customer~~ customer should know how to edit especially at the end of the year and that she doesn't mind going out of her way at the beginning when they are just learning

-charlotte asks whether typesetters should spell correctly or typeset correctly

-is it our responsibility or the customers'

-charlotte wants consistent corrections in everything and jane says that outside of the chev and cord, we are usually the ones who push the customer for consistency

- we will try to work these things out with new staffers on the chev and cord as they come along (seminars in the fall)

5) income tax refund - has been proposed to use uncome that would have been earned at Dumont during a whole year of employment here as the ideal norm

-people will do IT forms for the ideal and for what they actually earned and any differential in what people have and would pay for ~~IT~~ IT would be made up

-several folks haven't figured out their returns yet

-no objections to this form of equalization

-completely separate from bonus system which we will decide of later after viewing our year end financial statement
