1. Job list

- for the slack period when there's no Chevron
- typestyles book
- darkroom
- committees
- Murray suggests a list ~~be~~ to be added to; Mary will put up the list

2. Mathematical Marxist M.S.

- Tery Moore says Peter Warrrian would be a god person to evaluate it
- Ken claims we don't really need that because of whom the book is written for (3rd-4th year economics students)
- we would be the publishers, but we'll try and get some printing money from Schwartz
- Schwartz will take care of distribution
- distribution committee should meet with him
- see recommendations for organizing work in agenda log
- Jane, Mike C. and Mike R. volunteered to be on core group

3. BFP

- Mike C. made suggestions in agenda log re having someone in the shop with them at all times
- they need to be better organized; we should perhaps help them before they come into the shop
- Mike C. thinks they shouldn't be allowed to operate the VIP until they know what they are doing (2-3- issues hence)
- whoever delivers it tomorrow will talk to them

4. Mike R.'s request

- Roho wants to go to Halifax on Apr. 14 for 8-9 days; he has 2 shift credits and would ~~like~~ make up the extra time or take it out of vacation time
- "Cod luck, Mike"

5. Ellen Tolmie

- she would like people to send copies of letter to Dominion stores re grape boycott
 - tell Mike R. if you have sent a letter so he can tell Ellen
- ~~x~~

7. Enlarger

- see note in agenda log
- no one knows how much the enlarger cost
- Gary will phone Heer's for an appraisal

8. Schedule/UIC

- Murray, Sue, Jane and Doug are only ones left on books
- everyone else goes on unemployment
- summer schedule will begin in May

6. Crit. session

- Doug R. asks who is enthusiastic--no response
- Mary sees the framework as the most ~~serious~~ difficult problem
- Bob says lack of common political base is most difficult, but Mary sees that and framework as part of same thing
- at this point I stopped taking notes to join in the discussion
- starting to orrow, ½-1 hour/shift will be set aside for "criticism"; on Sun. Apr. 13 there will be a general crit. session somewhere
